

Sarah Johnson

sarah.johnson@email.com | (720) 555-1234 | Denver,

Profile

Dedicated Teacher Aide with 5+ years of experience supporting elementary educators and fostering positive learning environments. Skilled in providing one-on-one student assistance, implementing curriculum activities, and collaborating with teaching staff to enhance classroom dynamics. Passionate about inclusive education and helping every student reach their full potential.

Work Experience

08/2020 - present, Teacher aide, Denver Public Schools - Ellis Elementary School, Denver

- Assist lead teachers in classroom management for 25+ first-grade students
- Provide individualized support to students with diverse learning needs and abilities
- Implement small group activities based on teacher-designed curriculum
- Collaborate with special education staff to support IEP accommodations
- Participate in parent-teacher conferences and school community events

09/2018 - 07/2020, Afterschool program assistant, YMCA of Metropolitan Denver, Denver

- Supported after-school programming for elementary-aged children at three Denver locations
 - Planned and led educational activities focusing on literacy, STEM, and creative arts
 - Maintained a safe and engaging environment for 15-20 students daily
 - Communicated regularly with parents regarding student behavior and program activities
 - Participated in staff development sessions and safety training
-

Education

08/2016 - 05/2020, Associate of Arts, Community College of Denver, Denver

- GPA: 3.8/4.0
 - Relevant Coursework: Child Development, Educational Psychology, Classroom Management, Special Education Fundamentals
-

Skills

- Classroom support
- Student engagement
- Conflict resolution
- Record keeping
- CPR and First aid
- Behavior management